Backdating your benefit claim

Number 2 in a series of benefit information leaflets.
Backdating your benefit claim

Housing Benefit and Council Tax Reduction is normally awarded from the Monday after the day you made your claim. Sometimes we can pay benefit from an earlier date if you have a good reason for not claiming sooner.

This leaflet is part of a series (illustrated opposite) produced by a group of local authorities to help make Housing Benefit and Council Tax Reduction easier to understand.

When can you claim backdated benefit?

You can claim for backdated benefit if:

- you have already completed the Housing Benefit and Council Tax Reduction claim form; but
- feel you should have had benefit for a period before you made your claim.

The law says we can backdate your benefit up to 6 months from the date we receive your request, if you can give good reason why you did not apply sooner.

The good reason must apply over the full period for which you want benefit backdated.

What is ‘good reason’?

Some examples are:

- the death of a close relative;
- being in hospital or seriously ill;
- being wrongly advised by a person who should have known better, such as council staff, the Citizens Advice Bureau, a social worker, DWP staff;
- language difficulties;
- being unable to manage your affairs and not having anyone to help you.

What happens after a claim has been made?

After we have received your claim form we will reply within 14 days. If we refuse your claim for backdating, we will send you details of how to appeal.
